

13 APRIL 2017CIMIC'S THIESS WINS MOUNT PLEASANT MINING SERVICES CONTRACT

CIMIC Group's global mining services provider, Thies, has secured a mining services contract with MACH Energy's new Mount Pleasant coal mine in Australia's Hunter Valley region in New South Wales.

The new contract will generate total revenue of approximately $500 million. Thies will undertake total mining operations at Mount Pleasant until 2021, including mine planning and engineering.

CIMIC Chief Executive Officer Adolfo Valderas said: "This contract award is a reflection of Thies' ability to deliver a tailored, total mine solution to our clients, and is a valued addition to our expanding mining portfolio."

CIMIC Group Executive Mining and Mineral Processing and Thies Managing Director Michael Wright said: "We are proud to be developing the world-class Mt Pleasant coal operation focused on achieving successful outcomes for our clients and the community. We are very pleased to continue our long-standing presence in the Hunter Valley."

The Mount Pleasant coal mine has an estimated 474 million tonnes of total marketable coal reserves to be mined.
