ACS and HOCHTIEF companies Turner and FlatironDragados recognized in ENR industry rankings

ACS and HOCHTIEF Group companies Turner and FlatironDragados have been recognized among the industry's leading firms in the latest Engineering News Record rankings.

Turner was again ranked number one overall in the ENR Top 400 Contractors list, marking its sixth consecutive year at the top.

Turner also ranked first in domestic building and manufacturing revenue and significantly advanced its position among contractors working internationally as a result of expansion in global markets. The company also increased its ranking in the telecommunications sector, reflecting continued growth in advanced technology and data center construction.

FlatironDragados ranked first in transportation and domestic heavy contracting revenue and was named among the top 25 contractors overall in the ENR Top 400. This marks the first ENR ranking for FlatironDragados as a fully integrated company and demonstrates the value of strategically combining complementary expertise, capabilities and geographic reach across North America.

ACS and HOCHTIEF Chief Executive Officer Juan Santamaría said: "Alignment across ACS Group companies is creating opportunities for collaboration, with Turner and FlatironDragados working together on major projects that integrate building, civil, transportation and infrastructure expertise to deliver greater value for clients.

"These rankings reflect disciplined execution, technical excellence, innovation and strong partnerships, as well as the dedication of teams delivering complex projects in sectors that are shaping communities and economies around the world."

HOCHTIEF is an engineering-led global infrastructure solutions provider with leading positions in North America, Australia and Europe and a strong presence in the rapidly expanding strategic growth markets of data centers, energy and sustainable infrastructure markets. With around 62,000 employees and a sales volume of EUR 38.2 billion in 2025, HOCHTIEF is the leading construction management and green building company in the U.S. (through Turner), the largest contractor in the Australian infrastructure services market (CIMIC), a key player in U.S. transportation infrastructure (FlatironDragados) and a renowned civil engineering and building construction company in Europe. The Group's PPP and infrastructure development activity is complemented by its 20% stake in the leading international toll road concessions operator Abertis. HOCHTIEF's strong competitive position is underpinned by the Group's engineering know-how, innovative digital systems and supply chain & logistics solutions. Thanks to its long-standing commitment to sustainability, HOCHTIEF, where green projects account for almost 50% of Group sales, has been listed in the Dow Jones Sustainability Indices since 2006 and is committed to delivering on its ESG agenda including a net-zero target for 2045.
